TERMS AND CONDITIONS

RESERVATIONS

To make a reservation please complete the booking and information form and sign the Terms and Conditions. For individual, whole boat or exclusive charters a 30% non-refundable deposit of the full booking amount is to be paid, by cheque, direct debit or credit card. This deposit is non-refundable. Bookings are valid for a maximum of seven (7) days without a deposit and completed booking and information form, after this time the date will be released for sale. The balance is due a minimum of sixty (60) days prior to departure. Odyssey Expeditions require a completed reservation form and signed terms and conditions from all passengers to be returned with the payment. We recommend that clients book their flights and accommodation in Broome/Kununurra at the same time they commit to travel with Odyssey Expeditions. All prices are in Australian dollars.

PASSENGER CANCELLATION

Cancellation within 60 days prior to departure or if passengers fail to arrive – the total value of the reservation is forfeited. The 30% deposit payment is non-refundable. In the case of cancellation all other payments are non-refundable and passengers refer to their travel insurance. Odyssey Expeditions reserve the right to resell an unoccupied cabin due to cancellation.

TRAVEL AND MEDICAL INSURANCE

Odyssey Expeditions strongly recommends passengers arrange suitable comprehensive travel insurance which includes cancellation insurance at time of booking. Please ensure this includes medical evacuation and not just medical expenses. This acts as protection from any circumstance which may force you to cancel or leave an expedition whilst it is in progress. In the unlikely event of a medical evacuation while onboard please bring your travel insurance policy inclusive of medical evacuation or a valid credit card for payment. Odyssey Expeditions accepts no responsibility for the actions of any carrier that results in not meeting a booking or deadline.

ACCOMMODATION SHARE POLICY

Accommodation prices are based on twin share occupancy. Sole occupancy is charged at the normal fare plus a 50% single supplement. If the passenger is willing to share and Odyssey Expeditions is able to book a same sex roommate this supplement will be waived.

CRUISE CHANGES DELAYS OR CANCELLATIONS

If the carrier cancels the cruise prior to departure for operational reasons, the carrier will refund the fare paid. If the departure of the cruise is delayed / curtailed in excess of 24 hours, the carrier will refund part of the fare paid on a pro rata basis less any accommodation, evacuation or relocation costs. Odyssey Expeditions will endeavour to follow the cruise itinerary and the passenger accepts that the carrier has the right to change the Itinerary, the vessel or cancel the cruise as a result of force majeure or prevailing inclement weather conditions. The passenger accepts that they may then not be entitled to any compensation.

LIABILITY CONDITIONS

Odyssey Expeditions provides adventure expeditions and cruises and such the passengers may face dangers and discomfort. Should this happen each passenger should be prepared for and accept the risks involved with a trip of this nature. While all due care is taken by Odyssey Expeditions to avoid unnecessary risks it is the passenger's ultimate responsibility for damages or loss of personal property or any illness, injury or loss of life. Odyssey Expeditions does not accept liability for losses, costs or out of pocket expenses suffered as a delay in delivery of services. MEDICAL RISKS

We strongly advise that you arrange comprehensive travel, cancellation and medical insurance, at the time of booking. Passengers with any medical conditions or dietary requirements should also make them aware to Odyssey Expeditions at the time of booking. If a medical condition is diagnosed after making the booking, passengers should make Odyssey Expeditions aware of the condition as soon as possible after receiving medical confirmation, and can ascertain that they are fit to travel. Medical ailments or accidents during the trip should be reported to the captain immediately. Emergency evacuation is available for severe medical conditions, at the customer's expense (see Travel and Medical Insurance conditions).

The passenger admits a full understanding of the nature and character of the vessel and the scope of the activities contemplated by the passenger during the cruise (including those related to off vessel activities such as excursions in the vessel tenders, snorkelling and diving) and assures and undertakes to the carrier:

- That they are in good health and will be able to undertake the cruise and contemplated activities
